Bank Account Selection and Interest Rate: June 2026

1. Introduction

Administering pension scheme money means that the choice of bank is crucial. If a bank fails and the scheme account is affected by a removal of banking services, even temporarily, it could prevent the operation of the product and clients could lose money.

Both our trustee companies, Whitehall Trustees Limited and Whitehall SIPP Trustees Limited have selected an approved bank for the operation of pension scheme bank accounts.

While Small Self-Administered Schemes (SSAS) can choose different banks based on the trustees' decision, we do operate on a preferred bank basis.

The account used by our Self-Invested Personal Pension (SIPP) is selected by Whitehall SIPP Trustees Limited. Accounts are pension scheme accounts in the name of the scheme trustees. They are segregated from our company funds.

For example, if interest received is 3%, we will retain 0.8% and you will receive 2.2%. If interest received is 0.5%, we will retain 0.25% and you will receive 0.25%.
4. We may diversify across other banks if considered necessary.
5. Any decision to change approved bank will be notified in advance.
